

SELECTED WORKS BY SARAH SUMMERS

VIEWING BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

b. 1990

Lives and works in Melbourne, Australia.

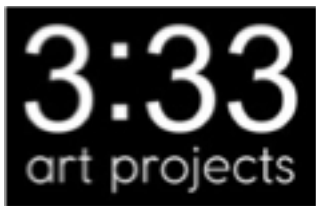

Sarah Summers works are centered around painting and drawing with oils on board, exploring the darkness of her familiar surroundings and reflecting a space of strangeness, imagination and growth. The connections between light and dark allow her to create works that reveal the way that the everyday changes and shifts constantly.

Summers is inspired and informed by poetry, literature and the art of quiet observation, often allowing her subject matter to speak for itself and engaging with the surprises it may bear. She uses the darkness as a lens that disrupts our view of familiarity and installs a sense of fascination, a desire to experience the unknown. Her paintings are striking and the brushstrokes appear to be heavy, and yet they demonstrate an intense attention to the details of light and darkness.

Summers graduated from Curtin University, WA, with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in 2016. Highlights of her career include successful solo exhibitions at A.K Bellinger Gallery, Rubicon ARI, and Yara Sculpture Valley; and multiple group exhibitions across Australia. She was a finalist in the Len Fox Painting Award and completed a residency at Pickers Hut Artist Residency in Tasmania. In 2019 she was also the recipient of the Small Projects Grant. Summers also appeared in an Exhibition Essay in Art, Not Apart.
